AN EXHIBITION FOR CHATHAM-KENT ARTISTS

After a prolonged pandemic hiatus, the Thames Art Gallery is thrilled to announce the return of its premier fundraising event Eye for Art this fall.

Eye for Art is a juried exhibition, sale and celebration of the visual arts community in Chatham-Kent. The original Eye for Art was held in 1983. Through the years, it has evolved into the much-loved event we know today. The exhibition is open to all past and present residents of Chatham-Kent. This year, all proceeds from sales, tickets, and associated events will be directed to ARTspace, our downtown community art gallery.

Eye for Art will be exhibited from November 18, 2022 – January 14, 2023. The opening reception and awards ceremony will take place November 18 beginning at 6:00 pm. A total of $2000.00 in awards will be presented, three Awards of Excellence ($500 each) and one People's Choice Award ($500). This year's Eye for Art will also feature the return of the much loved "Brush Off" painting competition where artists will compete for a "coveted prize" and all the works created will be auctioned at the grand finale of the evening.

The past few years have proven just how important the arts are in our lives, and so is the connection to local community. This event illustrates the vitality of the arts in Chatham-Kent, highlights our supporters, and celebrates artistic talent and passion within our community. The continued success of Eye for Art relies on corporate partner support. Many levels of sponsorship are available to suit your needs, and we look forward to exploring this opportunity with you.
